

Write a report for the local police about the conduct of young people in your local town or village. Comment on:

- facilities
- activities
- crime
- dangers

Imagine you are applying to appear on a t.v. talent show. Write a letter to the producers of the programme, persuading them that you are the right person to be given this opportunity.

Write the text for a leaflet promoting your favourite sport or pastime to other people your age.

Imagine you have been invited on to a fashionable radio station to argue your point of view either for or against smoking in public. Write the speech that you will give.

Write a magazine article for parents arguing for or against social networking websites.

Imagine a friend is worried about leaving home to start a new job. Write a letter to advise and support them.

Write a review for other people your age about a meal you have not enjoyed in a café, restaurant or canteen.

Write a leaflet promoting a local town or city to visitors.

Write a review of a film or t.v. programme that you have recently enjoyed. Aim it at the kind of people who would also enjoy it.

Write a light hearted magazine article about your experiences of starting at a new school or college.

Write a speech to persuade older people that young people today have just as hard a time as they did in their youth.

Write a letter applying for your dream job.